Eight people have been arrested in relation to an illegal prostitution ring in Brisbane.

Police say they carried out raids on properties at Bowen Hills, Woolloongabba and Moorooka yesterday and seized $75,000 in cash and $35,000 in assets.

It comes after a four-month investigation involving Queensland and Australian Federal Police, and the Department of Immigration and Citizenship.

The eight people have been charged with 30 prostitution related offences.

Two have been remanded in custody while the other six will appear in court next month.
